I’m No Saint . . . or Am I?

Family Handout

Although the Church gives certain people the official title of “saint,” we are all called saints because we are part of the Communion of Saints, all people who have been saved in Jesus Christ. Let’s think about some of the things that make us saints.

My greatest strengths as a person are

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

If I were to describe myself in one word it would be _________________________________.
People can count on me to

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________.
I work to make the world a better place by

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________.
Things I do to keep my friendship with God healthy and strong are

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________
I would make a good patron saint of ____________________________ because ________________________________________________________

Intergenerational Event—Saints

Kit Handout Worksheet Page 1 of 1