

The Church Is One

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 3, Session 11.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola was the founder of the Society of Jesus, an order of priests and brothers also known as the Jesuits.

The pope, bishops, priests, and deacons receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders and form the clergy. Bishops and priests form the priesthood.

PAGE 44

The call to lead a religious life means to follow Jesus by living in a community and embracing its practices. People living in a religious community make vows, or promises. For example, a vow of poverty is a promise to live simply.

Members of the Church who are not priests or in religious life make up the laity.

The Stations of the Cross are a way to retrace and reflect on Jesus' steps on the way to his Crucifixion.

PAGE 45

Evangelization is spreading the news about Jesus.

PAGE 45

Different traditions have been part of the Church from its beginning. These differences were a result of the division of the Roman Empire into the West and the East.

PAGE 46

Paul recognized both unity and diversity within the Church.
