

The Way to Jesus

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 5, Session 24.

During our human life, we can either accept or reject God's grace. When we die, we will be judged according to our works and faith.

A person may be united with God in Heaven, may undergo purification in Purgatory before being united with God, or may enter Hell, which is total separation from God.

God intends for all people to live in eternal glory with him.

While in death our souls are separated from our bodies, the soul will be reunited with the body at the end of time.

Through prayer we believe that we can intercede with God for those who have died and ask for indulgences on their behalf.

A person who has been saved becomes a member of the Communion of Saints, but the union is still imperfect because of the effects of sin.

Indulgences lessen the punishment due for sins that have been forgiven. Examples of indulgences are saying a designated prayer such as the Rosary or taking part in a pilgrimage.

A Holy Year is a special time of joy and pardon that occurs every 25 years. Many people make pilgrimages to Rome or to churches designated as places of pilgrimage.

According to the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus calls us to do good deeds and show kindness to others.
