David, the second king, united the various tribes under one rule and established Jerusalem as the capital of Israel.

PAGE 35

As David's power grew, he became arrogant and used his power to get whatever he wanted. This led him to make several bad decisions.

David's decisions concerning Bathsheba broke two of God's important commandments. He committed adultery with her and then arranged for Uriah to be on the front lines, where he was killed.

If we make poor choices, we can be forgiven, but we still have to live with the consequences.

PAGE 36

Having freedom of choice, or free will, does not mean we can do anything we please. God reminds us that choice is not only a gift granted to us but also a responsibility.

David and Ruth both made life-changing decisions with different consequences.
