

Celebrating Advent

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 2, Session 10.

The Church's liturgical year begins with Advent, a season of hope and waiting.

During Advent we get our churches, our homes, and our hearts ready to celebrate Jesus' birth.

PAGE 57

The word Advent comes from the Latin word adventus, which means "arrival" or "coming." During Advent we prepare to celebrate Jesus' birth.

There are four Sundays during the Advent season. We also celebrate two feasts of Mary's during Advent.

When we look around our church during Advent, we see a purple cloth draped on the altar, and the priest will be wearing purple vestments. On the third Sunday of Advent, the priest may wear rose-colored vestments.

The Angelus is a prayer of devotion that recalls the mystery of the Incarnation. It is prayed three times a day.

During Advent we see an Advent wreath in our church. Each of the wreath's four candles represents one of the Sundays of Advent.

The Angelus begins with the words the angel used to greet Mary when he told her about becoming Jesus' mother.

During Advent we prepare to celebrate Jesus' birth by choosing to make good moral choices.

There are many Advent traditions that help people prepare to celebrate Jesus' birth. These traditions include Advent wreaths, Advent calendars, Jesse trees, and Saint Nicholas Day celebrations.
