

Loving Our Family

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 5, Session 23.

Thomas More was a lawyer who became the Lord Chancellor of England. He was forced to choose between his loyalty to the Church and his loyalty to the government. Because of his strong faith, he chose the Church and was later beheaded. He is the patron saint of lawyers.

The Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Commandments help us live in relationship with others.

The Fourth Commandment calls families to support one another. God wants our parents to care for us. In return God wants us to respect our parents. Obedience is one form of respect.

The Fifth Commandment teaches us that killing is wrong. Acting on our anger can lead to violence, which is a sin against this commandment.

The Sixth Commandment calls us to respect our bodies and the bodies of others. It also reminds us that a husband and a wife are called to be faithful to each other and to respect their marriage promises.
